Sanctions on Iran

2703. SHRI D. RAJA: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that United Nations Security Council has voted to impose fresh set of sanctions against Iran despite the satisfactory resolution of all concrete issues surrounding its previous nuclear activities; and

(b) if so, the details and Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE): (a) and (b) Yes. On 3rd March, 2008, the United Nations Security Council adopted Resolution 1803, calling for: (i) an expansion of travel restrictions to more Iranian individuals; (ii) prohibiting the sale, supply or transfer of dual use items to Iran; (iii) imposing a freeze on assets of Iranian individuals and entities listed in the resolution, and requiring the exercise of vigilance with regard to extending new export credits and activities of financial institutions with all banks domiciled in Iran; and (iv) inspection of cargo to and from Iran if there are reasonable grounds to believe that these contain goods and items prescribed by UNSC Resolutions 1803, 1737 and 1747.

Government's consistent view has been that Iran has a right to develop peaceful use of nuclear energy while fulfilling all its obligations and commitments. The Iran nuclear issue should be resolved through peaceful diplomacy, and the framework of IAEA provides the best forum to address technical aspects of the issue.
